Date of posting: 31/07/2012

On Friday 27 July 2012, by acts of the Governor of the Bank of Greece, the operating license of the Agricultural Bank was revoked, which was put into special liquidation, in accordance with Law 3601/2007 and its healthy assets were transferred to Piraeus Bank .

This change of ownership will not bring about any change in the operation of the Bank.

From Monday, July 30, 2012, ATE bank Branches and other services continue to operate normally, exactly as they operated before the change, i.e. they carry out exactly the same banking operations in the same way.
