

Dec 16, 2011

Bad bank' Nama 'may enter' NI mortgage market

BBC Staff

Summary

Irish Government agency, Nama, which controls bad property loans taken from the banks, is considering entering the mortgage market in Northern Ireland. The agency currently controls more than £3bn worth of property loans in NI.

Recommended Citation: BBC. (2011, December 16). 'Bad bank' Nama 'may enter' NI mortgage market. BBC News. <https://www.bbc.com/news/uk-northern-ireland-16208090>.

View Full Article