Basic Policy in Exercising a Voting Right as a Shareholder

 Print

From the viewpoint of ensuring shareholder's benefits, DICJ exercises its voting rights, taking note of the following:

- Does it contribute to maintaining the soundness of bank management?
- Does it contribute to securing repayment source of public funds?
- Is it in accordance with the purposes of the law, such as financial facilitating, on which capital injection of public funds has been based?

In addition, DICJ pays attention if its exercises are consistent to administrative policies and measures.
