The Economist

January 22, 2009

Early in, early out

Summary

After escaping the Japanese Financial Crisis, Japan has approached a new recession, accompanied by low rates of exports. Domestic sentiment was affected by the issues. Deflation returned under these conditions. With the new economic outlook, bankruptcies of zombie firms had begun, as well as increases in unemployment. Political dysfunction is effecting economic outlook as well.

To view this article in its entirety please use the link provided below.

View Full Article

Recommended Citation

"Early in, Early Out." The Economist, January 22, 2009. https://www.economist.com/financeand-economics/2009/01/22/early-in-early-out.