Resolution of Insured

CDIC has four sources of funds:

a. Capital

Pursuant to the stipulations of the Enforcement Regulations of the Deposit Insurance Act, the total capital of CDIC shall be NT$10 billion.

b. Assessment income

Assessment income is the major source of the deposit insurance reserve fund. In order to enhance the reimbursement capability, CDIC according to the Deposit Insurance Act has set aside a deposit insurance reserve fund comprised the total amount of CDIC's surplus (deduct CDIC's expenses and loss from its revenue), once the accounts had been closed at the end of the business year.

c. Income from the deposit insurance reserve fund

CDIC's primary consideration in the use of its funds is safety. Pursuant to Article 8 of the Deposit Insurance Act, the funds of CDIC shall be deposited with the Central Bank, invested in government bonds and used in other means approved by CDIC's Board of Directors.

d. Special financial accommodation from the Central Bank

According to Article 31 of the Deposit Insurance Act, in order for CDIC to
