Current status of Irish Government Guarantee Schemes

Deposit Guarantee Scheme (DGS)

- ▶ Primary 'retail' deposit guarantee in Ireland covering eligible deposits of up to €100,000 per individual, per institution
- ▶ The DGS is operated by the Central Bank of Ireland and has no end date

Credit Institutions Financial Support Scheme (CIFS) - Expired

- ▶ CIFS - the original Irish Government Guarantee commenced on 30 September 2008 and expired on 29 September 2010
- ▶ CIFS was a blanket Scheme covering all deposits, senior debt, covered bonds and dated subordinated debt of the covered institutions

Eligible Liabilities Guarantee Scheme (the ELG Scheme)

- ▶ The ELG Scheme commenced on 9 December 2009 - a new scheme that moved away from the blanket nature of CIFS towards an opt-in/opt-out Guarantee
- ▶ Bank of Ireland became a Participating Institution in the ELG Scheme on 11 January 2010 with BOIUK joining the Scheme on 21 July 2010. Since 30 March 2012, BOIUK has been limiting its participation in the Scheme with relevant deposits solely covered by the UK's Financial Services Compensation Scheme. Since 10 August 2012, BOI IOM has been limiting its participation in the Scheme with eligible net deposits solely covered by the IOM's Depositors' Compensation Scheme

What is covered?

- ▶ The ELG Scheme covers deposits (to the extent not covered by deposit protection schemes in the State (see above note on DGS) or any other jurisdiction) and eligible debt securities (senior unsecured CP, CD and other senior unsecured notes and bonds in respect of which the National Treasury Management Agency has issued a guarantee certificate) up to a maximum maturity of 5 years. Since 30 March 2012, all demand and new fixed term deposits placed with BOIUK are solely covered by the UK's Financial Services Compensation Scheme. Since 10 August 2012, all eligible net deposits (demand and new fixed term) placed with BOI IOM are solely covered by the IOM's Depositors' Compensation Scheme
- ▶ The ELG Scheme does not guarantee covered bonds (ACS), subordinated debt or any senior term debt, or deposits that pre-date the Participating Institution joining the ELG Scheme. Since 30 March 2012, all demand and new fixed term deposits placed with BOIUK are solely covered by the UK's Financial Services Compensation Scheme. Since 10 August 2012, all eligible net deposits (demand and new fixed term) placed with BOI IOM are solely covered by the IOM's Depositors' Compensation Scheme
- ▶ To be eligible, deposits and debt securities must be placed / issued during the issuance window, which the EU Commission has approved to 30 June 2013 (issuance window commenced for each institution on joining the ELG Scheme)
- ▶ The ELG Scheme is irrevocable - fixed term deposits and debt securities issued under the ELG Scheme are guaranteed until their maturity (up to a maximum maturity of 5 years). Since 30 March 2012, all demand and new fixed term deposits placed with BOIUK are solely covered by the UK's Financial Services Compensation Scheme. Since 10 August 2012, all eligible net deposits (demand and new fixed term) placed with BOI IOM are solely covered by the IOM's Depositors' Compensation Scheme
- ▶ Eligible overnight / on-call deposits / current accounts are guaranteed until the ELG Scheme issuance window closes
- ▶ Participating Institutions in the ELG Scheme have the flexibility to issue unguaranteed debt securities and, since 16 November 2011, may also offer unguaranteed corporate and institutional deposits subject to the following conditions being met:
 - a) The depositor acknowledging in writing that the relevant deposit shall not be guaranteed under the ELG Scheme;
 - b) The terms of the relevant deposit state that the deposit shall not be guaranteed under the ELG Scheme; and
 - c) The deposit being made after 16 November 2011The nominal amount of the deposit must exceed €1m equivalent

ELG Scheme Extension

- ▶ In November 2012, the extension of the ELG Scheme to 31 December 2013 was approved by the Irish Houses of Parliament
- ▶ In December 2012, the EU Commission approved the extension of the ELG Scheme issuance window to 30 June 2013
