

January 6, 1999

Bambang defends program for bank recapitalization

Summary

The Indonesian government defended its plan to set aside Rp 18 trillion (US$2.25 billion) of the 1999/2000 state budget to recapitalize the country's beleaguered banks, saying it was the least the country could do to help revive the banking sector.

Article not available online directly. To view this article in its entirety, please use an archival research database, such as Factiva.

Recommended Citation

The Jakarta Post. "Bambang defends program for bank recapitalization." The Jakarta Post (Jakarta, Indonesia), January 6, 1999.