

ECB extends the swap facility agreement with the Bank of England

12 September 2012

The Governing Council of the European Central Bank (ECB) has decided, in agreement with the Bank of England, to extend the liquidity swap arrangement with the Bank of England up to 30 September 2013. The swap facility agreement established on 17 December 2010 had been authorised until the end of September 2011 and then extended until 28 September 2012.

The related announcement by the Bank of England is available at their website <http://www.bankofengland.co.uk>.
