

Japan Times

March 14, 1998

Three banks receiving public funds will trim staff

Japan Times Staff

Summary

An article announcing that three of the banks receiving capital injections had plans to cut a total of 2,000 employees over three years under their restructuring plans.

This article was accessed via Yale University's archive database of Japan Times articles.

Recommended Citation

Japan Times. 1998. "Three banks receiving public funds will trim staff," March 14, 1998. The Japan Times archives.