Annual Investment Adviser's Report
December 31, 2008 (unaudited)

February 3, 2009

Dear Shareholder:

For the Credit Suisse Institutional Money Market Fund, Inc. — Prime Portfolio (the "Portfolio"), the annualized current yields for the seven-day period ended December 31, 2008, were 1.75%, 1.65%, and 1.50% for the Portfolio's Class A, B and C shares, respectively.<sup>1</sup> The Portfolio's weighted average maturity as of December 31, 2008, was 17 days.

Market Review: Front end of the market stabilizing

For the year ending December 31, 2008, market conditions could best be described as brutal. Liquidity conditions, which were difficult at the beginning of the year, only deteriorated as the market weathered a near collapse of the global financial system.

The general risk aversion in the marketplace drove spreads on all non-treasury securities to wide measures never seen before. Toward the end of the year, the Federal Reserve and the Treasury put a number of programs in place that allowed the front end of the market to stabilize and spreads to narrow. Though improved, liquidity is still an issue for securities that are neither extremely short nor covered by one of the government programs.

Federal Reserve policy has shifted dramatically in response to the systemic meltdown in 2008. The overnight Fed Funds rate began the year at 4.25% and ended the year at roughly zero as the Fed changed course from an inflation fighting tone to a deflation fighting one. Other short-term interest rates have been very volatile and much slower to fall as a result of investor risk aversion and the general fear resulting from high-profile bank and broker-dealer bankruptcies.

Strategic Review and Outlook: Expecting spreads to tighten

For the twelve-month period ended December 31, 2008, the portfolio slightly underperformed the industry average as we followed an extremely conservative investment strategy that emphasized liquidity and excluded several high yielding asset classes.

We have seen a gradual improvement in the front end of the yield curve as the Federal Reserve's zero interest rate policy has forced investors to extend out on both the yield curve and the risk curve. We expect this to continue and anticipate that the historically wide spreads between overnight rates and Libor rates will narrow over the next 3 to 6 months.

The portfolios have been closed to new investors and the Fund's directors have decided that the Fund should be liquidated. In light of the sustained compromised liquidity in the market, we anticipate continuing the strategy of maintaining maximum liquidity in the portfolio — even at the expense of maximizing the yield.

The annualized gross expense ratios are 0.25% for Class A shares, 0.36% for Class B shares and 0.51% for Class C shares. The annualized net expense ratios after fee waivers and/or expense reimbursements are 0.05% for Class A shares, 0.15% for Class B shares and 0.31% for Class C shares.

<sup>1</sup> Returns and yields may include waivers of advisory fees and reimbursements of Portfolio expenses. Declines in interest-rate levels could cause the Portfolio's earnings to fall below the Portfolio's expenses, resulting in a negative yield. Credit Suisse has agreed voluntarily to waive fees and reimburse expenses as necessary to maintain a positive yield. This waiver and reimbursement may be changed or terminated at any time. Returns assume reinvestment of dividends.

Information About Your Portfolio's Expenses

As an investor of the Portfolio, you incur two types of costs: ongoing expenses and transaction costs. Ongoing expenses include management fees, distribution and service (12b-1) fees and other Portfolio expenses. Examples of transaction costs include sales charges (loads), redemption fees and account maintenance fees, which are not shown in this section and which would result in higher total expenses. The following table is intended to help you understand your ongoing expenses of investing in the Portfolio and to help you compare these expenses with the ongoing expenses of investing in other mutual funds. The table is based on an investment of $1,000 made at the beginning of the six month period ended December 31, 2008.

The table illustrates your Portfolio's expenses in two ways:

- Actual Portfolio Return. This helps you estimate the actual dollar amount of ongoing expenses paid on a $1,000 investment in the Portfolio using the Portfolio's actual return during the period. To estimate the expenses you paid over the period, simply divide your account value by $1,000 (for example, an $8,600 account value divided by $1,000 = 8.6), then multiply the result by the number in the "Expenses Paid per $1,000" line under the share class you hold.
- Hypothetical 5% Portfolio Return. This helps you to compare your Portfolio's ongoing expenses with those of other mutual funds using the Portfolio's actual expense ratio and a hypothetical rate of return of 5% per year before expenses. Examples using a 5% hypothetical portfolio return may be found in the shareholder reports of other mutual funds. The hypothetical account values and expenses may not be used to estimate the actual ending account balance or expenses you paid for the period.

Please note that the expenses shown in these tables are meant to highlight your ongoing expenses only and do not reflect any transaction costs, such as sales charges (loads) or redemption fees. If these transaction costs had been included, your costs would have been higher. The "Expenses Paid per $1,000" line of the tables is useful in comparing ongoing expenses only and will not help you determine the relative total expenses of owning different funds.

Dear Shareholder:

For the Credit Suisse Institutional Money Market Fund, Inc. — Government Portfolio (the "Portfolio"), the annualized current yields for the seven-day period ended December 31, 2008, were 0.78%, 0.68%, and 0.53% for the Portfolio's Class A, B and C shares, respectively.<sup>1</sup> The Portfolio's weighted average maturity as of December 31, 2008, was 14 days.

Market Review: Front end of the market stabilizing

For the year ending December 31, 2008, market conditions could best be described as brutal. Liquidity conditions, which were difficult at the beginning of the year, only deteriorated as the market weathered a near collapse of the global financial system.

The general risk aversion in the marketplace drove spreads on all non-treasury securities (including agencies) to wide measures never seen before. Toward the end of the year, the Federal Reserve and the Treasury put a number of programs in place (including the takeover of Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac) that allowed the front end of the market to stabilize and spreads to narrow. Spreads on agencies collapsed as investors looked for any safe option besides treasuries, which were paying approximately 0%.

Federal Reserve policy has shifted dramatically in response to the systemic meltdown in 2008. The overnight Fed Funds rate began the year at 4.25% and ended the year at roughly zero as the Fed changed course from an inflation fighting tone to a deflation fighting one. Other short-term interest rates have been very volatile and much slower to fall as a result of investor risk aversion and the general fear resulting from high-profile bank and broker-dealer bankruptcies.

For the twelve-month period ended December 31, 2008, the portfolio slightly underperformed the industry average as we followed an extremely conservative investment strategy that emphasized liquidity and excluded several high yielding opportunities.

We have seen a gradual improvement in the front end of the yield curve as the Federal Reserve's zero interest rate policy has forced investors to extend out on both the yield curve and the risk curve. We expect this to continue and anticipate that the historically wide spreads between overnight rates and Libor rates will narrow over the next 3 to 6 months. The agency floating rate note (FRN) market has returned to spreads that were prevalent prior to the market turmoil of 2007 and 2008. We expect these spreads to remain stable or to potentially widen slightly as investor risk aversion unwinds.

The portfolios have been closed to new investors and the Fund's directors have decided that the Fund should be liquidated. In light of the sustained compromised liquidity in the market, we anticipate continuing the strategy of maintaining maximum liquidity in the portfolio — even at the expense of maximizing the yield.

Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2008

Note 1. Organization

Credit Suisse Institutional Money Market Fund, Inc. (the "Fund") is registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the "1940 Act"), as an open-end management investment company. The Fund currently offers two managed investment portfolios, the Prime Portfolio and Government Portfolio (each a "Portfolio" and collectively, the "Portfolios"), which are contained in this report. The Fund was incorporated under the laws of the State of Maryland on August 17, 2001.

The investment objective of each Portfolio is high current income, consistent with liquidity and stability of principal.

Each Portfolio offers three classes of shares: Class A shares, Class B shares and Class C shares. Each class of shares in each Portfolio represents an equal pro rata interest in the Portfolio, except that they bear different expenses, which reflect the differences in the range of services provided to them.

Each Portfolio is considered to be a separate entity for financial reporting and tax purposes. It is the policy of each Portfolio to maintain a stable net asset value of $1.00 per share. Each Portfolio has adopted certain investment, fund valuation, dividend and distribution policies to enable it to do so. There is no assurance, however, that each Portfolio will be able to maintain a stable net asset value of $1.00 per share.

Temporary Guarantee Program — On October 1, 2008, the Board of Directors of the Fund approved participation in the U.S. Treasury Department's (the "Treasury") Temporary Guarantee Program for the Fund (the "Program"). Each Portfolio of the Fund paid the Treasury a fee based on the number of shares outstanding as of September 19, 2008 to participate in the Program for the initial 3-month term that expired on December 18, 2008. On December 3, 2008, the Board of Directors approved participation in the extension of the Program through April 30, 2009 for which each Portfolio paid the Treasury an additional fee also based on the number of shares outstanding as of September 19, 2008.

Under the Program, if the Portfolio's market-based net asset value per share drops below $0.995 on any day while the Program is in effect, shareholders of record on that date who also held shares in the Portfolio on September 19, 2008 may be eligible to receive a payment from the Treasury upon liquidation of the Portfolio. The fees are being amortized over the length of the participation in the Program. The expense is borne by the Portfolio subject to any expense limitation in effect for the Portfolio.

Note 2. Significant Accounting Policies

A) SECURITY VALUATION — The net asset value of each Portfolio is determined at 12:00 noon eastern time and at the close of regular trading on the New York Stock Exchange, Inc. (normally 4:00 pm eastern time) each day each Portfolio is open for business. Each Portfolio's investments are valued under the amortized cost method, which has been determined by the Portfolios' Board of Directors to represent the fair value of the Portfolios' investments. Amortized cost involves valuing a Portfolio's holding initially at its cost and then assuming a constant amortization to maturity of any discount or premium. The amortized cost method ignores any impact of fluctuating interest rates. The Board of Directors has established procedures intended to stabilize each Portfolio's net asset value for purposes of sales and redemptions at $1.00 per share. These procedures include review by the Board of Directors, at such intervals as it deems appropriate, to determine the extent, if any, to which each Portfolio's net asset value per share calculated by using available market quotations deviates from $1.00 per share. In the event such deviation exceeds 1/2 of 1%, the Board of Directors will promptly consider what action, if any, should be initiated.

Each Portfolio adopted Financial Accounting Standards Board Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 157, Fair Value Measurements ("FAS 157"), effective January 1, 2008. In accordance with FAS 157, fair value is defined as the price that a Portfolio would receive upon selling an investment in a timely transaction to an independent buyer in the principal or most advantageous market of the investment. FAS 157 established a three-tier hierarchy to maximize the use of observable market data and minimize the use of unobservable inputs and to establish classification of fair value measurements for disclosure purposes. Inputs refer broadly to the assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability, including assumptions about risk, for example, the risk inherent in a particular valuation technique used to measure fair value including such a pricing model and/or the risk inherent in the inputs to the valuation technique. Inputs may be observable or unobservable. Observable inputs are inputs that reflect the assumptions market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability developed based on market data obtained from sources independent of the reporting entity. Unobservable inputs are inputs that reflect the reporting entity's own assumptions about the assumptions market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability developed based on the best information available in the circumstances. The three-tier hierarchy of inputs is summarized in the three broad Levels listed below.

- Level 1 – quoted prices in active markets for identical investments

Credit Suisse Institutional Money Market Fund, Inc.
December 31, 2008

Note 2. Significant Accounting Policies

- Level 2 – other significant observable inputs (including quoted prices for similar investments, interest rates, prepayment speeds, credit risk, etc.)
- Level 3 – significant unobservable inputs (including a Portfolio's own assumptions in determining the fair value of investments)

The inputs or methodology used for valuing securities are not necessarily an indication of the risk associated with investing in those securities.

The following is a summary of the inputs used as of December 31, 2008 in valuing each Portfolio's investments carried at value:

Prime Portfolio

Valuation Inputs	Investments in Securities	Other Financial Instruments*
Level 1 – Quoted Prices	$ 1,340,000,000	$ —
Level 2 – Other Significant Observable Inputs	1,936,746,848	—
Level 3 – Significant Unobservable Inputs	—	—
Total	$ 3,276,746,848	$ —

Government Portfolio

Valuation Inputs	Investments in Securities	Other Financial Instruments*
Level 1 – Quoted Prices	$ 275,000,000	$ —
Level 2 – Other Significant Observable Inputs	342,803,644	—
Level 3 – Significant Unobservable Inputs	—	—
Total	$ 617,803,644	$ —

*Other financial instruments include futures, forwards and swap contracts.

B) ILLIQUID SECURITIES — A security is considered illiquid if it cannot be sold or disposed of in the ordinary course of business within seven days or less for its approximate carrying value on the books of the Portfolio. Valuations of illiquid securities may differ significantly from the values that would have been used had an active market value for these securities existed.

Due to changes in market conditions, a number of the Prime Portfolio's holdings that had previously been determined to be liquid were deemed to be illiquid. For so long as the Prime Portfolio holds illiquid securities representing 10% or more of its total assets, the Prime Portfolio may not purchase additional illiquid securities. In addition, the Prime Portfolio will attempt to reduce its holdings of illiquid securities in an orderly fashion.

C) SECURITY TRANSACTIONS AND INVESTMENT INCOME — Security transactions are accounted for on a trade date basis. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. Certain expenses are class-specific expenses and vary by

Credit Suisse Institutional Money Market Fund, Inc.
December 31, 2008

class. Income, expenses (excluding class-specific expenses) and realized/unrealized gains/losses are allocated proportionately to each class of shares based upon the relative net asset value of the outstanding shares of that class. The cost of investments sold is determined by use of the specific identification method for both financial reporting and income tax purposes.

D) DIVIDENDS AND DISTRIBUTIONS TO SHAREHOLDERS — Dividends from net investment income are declared daily and paid monthly. Distributions of net realized capital gains, if any, are declared and paid at least annually, although the Portfolios may declare and pay short-term capital gains, if any, periodically as the Board of Directors determines. However, to the extent that a net realized capital gain can be reduced by a capital loss carryforward, such gain will not be distributed. Income and capital gain distributions are determined in accordance with federal income tax regulations, which may differ from accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP").

E) FEDERAL INCOME TAXES — No provision is made for federal taxes as it is each Portfolio's intention to continue to qualify for and elect the tax treatment applicable to regulated investment companies under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and to make the requisite distributions to its shareholders, which will be sufficient to relieve it from federal income and excise taxes.

During June 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued FASB Interpretation 48 ("FIN 48" or the "Interpretation"), Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes — an interpretation of FASB statement 109. Each Portfolio has reviewed its current tax positions and has determined that no provision for income tax is required in the Portfolio's financial statements. Each Portfolio's federal tax returns for the prior three fiscal years remain subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service.

F) REPURCHASE AGREEMENTS — Each Portfolio may enter into repurchase agreements. Under the terms of a typical repurchase agreement, a Portfolio acquires a security subject to an obligation of the seller to repurchase the security. Securities pledged as collateral for repurchase agreements are held by the broker until the agreements mature. Each agreement requires that the market value of the collateral be sufficient to cover payment of interest and principal; however, in the event of default or bankruptcy by the other party to the agreement, retention of the collateral may be subject to legal proceedings.

G) USE OF ESTIMATES — The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of income and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Credit Suisse Institutional Money Market Fund, Inc.

Note 2. Significant Accounting Policies

H) CREDIT AND MARKET RISK — The value of structured securities held in the Portfolios and underlying funds may be affected by, among other things, changes in: interest rates, the quality of the underlying assets or the market's assessments thereof, factors concerning the interests in and structure of the issuer or the originator of the receivables, or the creditworthiness of the entities that provide any credit enhancements.

Note 3. Transactions with Affiliates and Related Parties

Credit Suisse Asset Management, LLC ("Credit Suisse"), an indirect, wholly-owned subsidiary of Credit Suisse Group AG, serves as investment adviser for the Portfolios. For its investment advisory services, Credit Suisse is entitled to receive a fee from each Portfolio at an annual rate of 0.20% of each Portfolio's average daily net assets. For the year ended December 31, 2008, investment advisory fees earned, voluntarily waived and expenses reimbursed, were as follows:

Portfolio	Gross Advisory Fee	Waiver	Net Advisory Fee	Expense Reimbursement
Prime Portfolio	$ 14,823,402	$ (14,823,402)	$ —	$ (304,632)
Government Portfolio	1,574,278	(607,808)	966,470	—

Credit Suisse will not recapture from the Portfolios any fees it waived or expenses it reimbursed during the year ended December 31, 2008. Fee waivers and reimbursements are voluntary and may be discontinued by Credit Suisse at any time.

During the year ended December 31, 2007, Credit Suisse voluntarily contributed capital to the Prime Portfolio in the amount of $2,457,361 to offset the effect of accumulated realized losses in the Prime Portfolio. Credit Suisse received no shares of common stock in exchange for this contribution, which increased the net asset value of the Prime Portfolio. For tax purposes, this capital contribution will be applied against realized losses for the year. Such amount has been recorded as additional paid-in capital in the Statement of Assets and Liabilities. In addition, an affiliate of Credit Suisse purchased $3 billion of shares of the Prime Portfolio in August 2007. These shares were subsequently redeemed in September and October 2007.

Note 3. Transactions with Affiliates and Related Parties

During the year ended December 31, 2008, Credit Suisse voluntarily contributed capital to the Prime Portfolio in the amount of $11,775,477 to offset the effect of accumulated realized losses in the Prime Portfolio. Credit Suisse received no shares of common stock in exchange for this contribution, which increased the net asset value of the Prime Portfolio. For tax purposes, this capital contribution will be applied against realized losses for the year. Such amount has been recorded as additional paid-in capital in the Statement of Assets and Liabilities. In addition, an affiliate of Credit Suisse purchased $2.25 billion of shares of the Prime Portfolio in September and October of 2008. Of this amount, $750 million of shares were subsequently redeemed prior to December 31, 2008.

On August 16, 27 and 28, 2007, an affiliate of Credit Suisse purchased at amortized cost, including accrued interest, which at the time approximated the then-current market value, from the Prime Portfolio securities with a face value of approximately $5.692 billion.

Credit Suisse Asset Management Securities, Inc. ("CSAMSI"), an affiliate of Credit Suisse, and State Street Bank and Trust Company ("SSB") serve as co-administrators to the Portfolios. No compensation is payable by the Portfolios to CSAMSI for co-administrative services.

For its co-administrative services, SSB receives a fee, exclusive of out-of-pocket expenses, calculated in total for all the Credit Suisse funds/portfolios co-administered by SSB and allocated based upon the relative average net assets of each fund/portfolio, subject to an annual minimum fee. For the year ended December 31, 2008, co-administrative services fees earned by SSB (including out-of-pocket expenses) were as follows:

Portfolio	Administrative Services Fee
Prime Portfolio	$ 2,661,511
Government Portfolio	281,303

In addition to serving as each Fund's co-administrator, CSAMSI currently serves as distributor of each Portfolio's shares. Pursuant to distribution plans adopted by each Portfolio pursuant to Rule 12b-1 under the 1940 Act, CSAMSI receives fees for its distribution services. This fee is currently calculated at an annual rate of 0.10% of the average daily net assets of the Class B shares of each Portfolio and at an annual rate of 0.25% of the average daily net assets of the Class C shares of each Portfolio. CSAMSI may use this fee to compensate service organizations for distribution services. Class A shares of each Portfolio do not bear distribution fees.

Merrill Corporation ("Merrill"), an affiliate of Credit Suisse, has been engaged by each Portfolio to provide certain financial printing and fulfillment services. For the year ended December 31, 2008, Merrill was paid for its services to the Portfolios as follows:

Portfolio	Amount
Prime Portfolio	$ 30,650
Government Portfolio	30,259

Note 4. Capital Share Transactions

The Fund is authorized to issue fifty-five billion full and fractional shares of capital stock, $.001 par value per share, of which fifty-one billion shares are designated Class A shares, two billion shares are designated Class B shares and two billion shares are designated Class C shares. At December 31, 2008, the Prime Portfolio reclassified $724,765 to undistributed net investment income and $13,508,073 to accumulated net realized gain/(loss) on investments from paid in capital to adjust for current period permanent book/tax differences that arose principally from distribution redesignations and differing book/tax treatment of capital contributions. Net assets were not affected by these reclassifications.

At December 31, 2008, the Government Portfolio reclassified $20,957 from accumulated net realized gain from investments to accumulated undistributed net investment income to adjust for current period permanent book/tax differences that arose principally from distribution redesignations. Net assets were not affected by these reclassifications.

Note 6. Contingencies

In the normal course of business, the Portfolios may provide general indemnifications pursuant to certain contracts and organizational documents. The Portfolios' maximum exposure under these arrangements is dependent on future claims that may be made against the Portfolios and, therefore, cannot be estimated; however, based on experience, the risk of loss from such claims is considered remote.

Note 7. Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In March 2008, FASB issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 161, Disclosures about Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities ("FAS 161"), an amendment of FASB Statement No. 133. FAS 161 requires enhanced disclosures about (a) how and why an entity uses derivative instruments, (b) how derivative instruments and hedging activities are accounted for, and (c) how derivative instruments and related hedging activities affect a fund's financial position, financial performance, and cash flows. Management of the Portfolio does not believe the adoption of FAS 161 will materially impact the financial statement amounts, but will require additional disclosures. This will include qualitative and quantitative disclosures on derivative positions existing at period end and the effect of using derivatives during the reporting period. FAS 161 is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years and interim periods beginning after November 15, 2008.

Note 8. Liquidation

The Board of Directors of the Fund has concluded that a complete liquidation of the Government Portfolio and the Prime Portfolio is in the best interest of the Portfolio and their shareholders. The reason for this is that the Board was informed by Credit Suisse that it intends to cease managing U.S. money market funds in the near future. Liquidation of the Portfolios does not require approval of the Portfolios' shareholders. In light of the decision to liquidate the Portfolios, the Portfolios were closed to new investors effective December 22, 2008.

The date for the final liquidation of the Government Portfolio has been set at April 28, 2009. Each shareholder of the Government Portfolio as of April 27, 2009 will receive a distribution in an amount equal to the Portfolio's net asset value per share on or about April 28, 2009. Each shareholder will also receive previously declared and unpaid dividends and distributions, if any.

Effective February 17, 2009, the Government Portfolio stopped charging Distribution and Service (12b-1) fees on all classes of shares.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Board of Directors and Shareholders of Credit Suisse Institutional Money Market Fund, Inc. — Prime Portfolio and Credit Suisse Institutional Money Market Fund, Inc. — Government Portfolio:

In our opinion, the accompanying statement of assets and liabilities, including the schedule of investments, and the related statements of operations and of changes in net assets and the financial highlights present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Credit Suisse Institutional Money Market Fund, Inc. — Prime Portfolio and Credit Suisse Institutional Money Market Fund, Inc. — Government Portfolio (the "Portfolios") at December 31, 2008, the results of their operations for the year then ended and the changes in their net assets and financial highlights for the periods presented, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. These financial statements and financial highlights (hereafter referred to as "financial statements") are the responsibility of the Portfolios' management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits of these financial statements in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, and evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits, which included confirmation of securities at December 31, 2008 by correspondence with the custodian, transfer agent and brokers, provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

As disclosed in Note 8 the Portfolios closed to new investors on December 22, 2008 following Board approval to liquidate the Portfolios.

Board Approval of Advisory Agreement (unaudited)

In approving the renewal of the current Advisory Agreement, the Board of Directors, including the Independent Directors, at a meeting held on November 18 and 19, 2008, considered the following factors with respect to the Prime Portfolio (the "Portfolio"):

Investment Advisory Fee Rates

The Board reviewed and considered the contractual advisory fee rate of 0.20% for the Portfolio ("Contractual Advisory Fee") in light of the extent and quality of the advisory services provided by Credit Suisse Asset Management, LLC ("Credit Suisse"). The Board also reviewed and considered that Credit Suisse had waived the entire amount of the advisory fee ("Net Advisory Fee") and reimbursed expenses. The Board acknowledged that voluntary fee waivers and expense reimbursements could be discontinued at any time.

Additionally, the Board received and considered information comparing the Portfolio's Contractual Advisory Fee, Net Advisory Fee and the Portfolio's overall expenses with those of funds in both the relevant expense group ("Expense Group") and universe of funds ("Expense Universe") provided by Lipper Inc., an independent provider of investment company data.

Nature, Extent and Quality of the Services under the Advisory Agreement

The Board received and considered information regarding the nature, extent and quality of services provided to the Portfolio by Credit Suisse under the Advisory Agreement. The Board also noted information received at regular meetings throughout the year related to the services rendered by Credit Suisse. The Board reviewed background information about Credit Suisse, including its Form ADV. The Board considered the background and experience of Credit Suisse's senior management and the expertise of, and the amount of attention given to the Portfolio by, senior personnel of Credit Suisse. In addition, the Board reviewed the qualifications, backgrounds and responsibilities of the portfolio management team primarily responsible for the day-to-day portfolio management of the Portfolio and the extent of the resources devoted to research and analysis of actual and potential investments. The Board also received and considered information about the nature, extent and quality of services and fee rates offered to other Credit Suisse clients for comparable services.

Credit Suisse Institutional Money Market Fund, Inc. — Prime Portfolio

Portfolio Performance

The Board received and considered the performance results of the Portfolio over time, along with comparisons both to the relevant performance group ("Performance Group") and universe of funds ("Performance Universe") for the Portfolio. The Board was provided with a description of the methodology used to arrive at the funds included in the Performance Group and the Performance Universe.

Credit Suisse Profitability

The Board received and considered a profitability analysis of Credit Suisse based on the fees payable under the Advisory Agreement for the Portfolio, including any fee waivers or fee caps, as well as other relationships between the Portfolio on the one hand and Credit Suisse affiliates on the other. The Board received profitability information for the other funds in the Credit Suisse family of funds.

Economies of Scale

The Board considered whether economies of scale in the provision of services to the Portfolio were being passed along to the shareholders. Accordingly, the Board considered whether alternative fee structures (such as breakpoint fee structures) would be more appropriate or reasonable taking into consideration economies of scale or other efficiencies that might accrue from increases in the Portfolio's asset levels.

Other Benefits to Credit Suisse

The Board considered other benefits received by Credit Suisse and its affiliates as a result of their relationship with the Portfolio. Such benefits include, among others, benefits potentially derived from an increase in Credit Suisse's businesses as a result of its relationship with the Portfolio (such as the ability to market to shareholders other financial products offered by Credit Suisse and its affiliates).

The Board considered the standards applied in seeking best execution and reviewed Credit Suisse's method for allocating portfolio investment opportunities among its advisory clients.

Conclusions

In selecting Credit Suisse, and approving the Advisory Agreement and the investment advisory fee under such agreement, the Board concluded that:

- Although the combined Contractual Advisory Fee and co-administration fees were above the median of the Portfolio's Expense Group, the Net Advisory Fee was the lowest of the Expense Group and the Board considered the fee to be reasonable.
- The Portfolio's performance was above the median of both the Performance Group and Performance Universe for all periods and was ranked first or second among the funds in the Performance Group for the two, three, four and five year periods.
- The Board was satisfied with the nature and extent of the investment advisory services provided to the Portfolio by Credit Suisse and that, based on dialogue with management and counsel, the services provided by Credit Suisse under the Advisory Agreement are typical of, and consistent with, those provided to similar mutual funds by other investment advisers.
- In light of the costs of providing investment management and other services to the Portfolio and Credit Suisse's ongoing commitment to the Portfolio and willingness to waive fees and expenses, the profits and other ancillary benefits that Credit Suisse and its affiliates received were considered reasonable.
- Credit Suisse's profitability based on fees payable under the Advisory Agreement was reasonable in light of the nature, extent and quality of the services provided to the Portfolio thereunder.
- In light of the amount of the Net Advisory Fee and Credit Suisse's willingness to waive fees and reimburse expenses, the Portfolio's current fee structure (without breakpoints) was considered reasonable.

No single factor reviewed by the Board was identified by the Board as the principal factor in determining whether to approve the Advisory Agreement. The Independent Directors were advised by separate independent legal counsel throughout the process.

Item 2. Code of Ethics.

The registrant has adopted a code of ethics applicable to its Chief Executive Officer, President, Chief Financial Officer and Chief Accounting Officer, or persons performing similar functions. A copy of the code is filed as Exhibit 12(a)(1) to this Form. There were no amendments to the code during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2008. There were no waivers or implicit waivers from the code granted by the registrant during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2008.

Item 3. Audit Committee Financial Expert.

The registrant's governing board has determined that it has two audit committee financial experts serving on its audit committee: Enrique R. Arzac and Steven N. Rappaport. Each audit committee financial expert is "independent" for purposes of this item.

Item 4. Principal Accountant Fees and Services.

(a) through (d). The information in the table below is provided for services rendered to the registrant by its independent registered public accounting firm, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP ("PwC"), for its fiscal years ended December 31, 2007 and December 31, 2008.

	2007	2008
Audit Fees	$ 102,898	$ 82,500
Audit-Related Fees(1)	$ 6,680	$ 6,800
